

Buchanan Memorial Conference September 28-9

Letter from Prof. Roger Congleton

Dear Akira,

I hope all is well.

I am writing to make sure that you and the members of the Japanese Public Choice society are aware of the memorial conference for James Buchanan being organized at GMU for the last weekend of September: September 28 and 29.

Many members of the society knew Professor Buchanan personally from their visits to the Center for Study of Public Choice and from his occasional visits to Japan.

If you have yet not heard about the conference from GMU--which has been a bit late sending out invitations--could you please let members of the Japanese Public Choice Society know that they are all very welcome to attend.

The main memorial events are on Sunday, with an academic conference on Jim's work on Saturday.

The conference website is:

<http://www.gmu.edu/centers/publicchoice/misc/buchevent.htm>

I hope that at least a few members will be able to attend.

Best regards,

Roger
